Crack down on thieves

As a result of a reported break, enter and theft at the Minden Laundromat in late August 1974, two reports of break, enter and theft at the Mr Frostee snack bar in Haliburton, and an attempted theft at the Haliburton Laundromat, four persons have been charged.

Robert William French, formerly of Agincourt and now of Haliburton, and Robert William Perrin, age 19 of Haliburton have been charged with three counts of break, enter and theft, two counts of mischief to property, and one count of attempted theft.

Allan Marshal Commanda, age 18 of Haliburton, has been charged with two counts of break, enter and theft, two counts of mischief to property and one count of attempted theft. Dona Shelley Miscio age 18, also of Haliburton, has been charged with one count of break, enter and theft, two counts of mischief to property, and one count of attempted theft. Investigation of these offences has been carried out by Constable M.W. Hickey of the Minden Detachment of the O.P.P.

As a result of a report of four missing boats in the Lake Kashagawigamog area and a cottage break-in, Stephen Harold Ryder, age 16 of R.R. # 1, Haliburton has been charged with four counts of theft over two hundred dollars and one charge of break, enter and theft. Also charged in these same offences are four juveniles of R. R. # 1, Haliburton. This investigation has been carried out by Constable J.G. Martin of the Minden Detachment of the O.P.P.

In cross-country race

Haliburton is invaded by 300 motorcyclists

The Village of Haliburton was bustling with excitement over the past weekend when some 300 riders on Saturday and Sunday assembled at Deer Lodge to take part in the twenty-first running of The Corduroy Enduro, a cross country endurance run for motorcyclists.

Two thirds of the entrants were Americans and some came from as far away as Kentucky and Indiana. For many the major accomplishment was not a cheque or a silver cup, but a small cloth which reads simply "Corduroy Finisher."

After driving 320 miles in two days, less than fifty on the highway, the rest a punishing combination of logging roads, power lines, river beds and the Peterson Trail out of the 300 rides who started only 60 finished. There were numerous ankle injuries and one rider came out of it all with a broken collar bone.

The bikes, known as enduro bikes, are specially built for this type of event, and are of limited suitability for highway riding - few can exceed 60 M.P.H. High ground clearance "Knobby" tires - similar to automobile winter tires, and water-proofed engines equip them to tackle axle deep water, rock and log strewn paths, and conditions which would defeat any other all-terrain vehicle. While the average speed for the whole run was only 24 M.P.H., many were unable to maintain this, and as many as one third exceeded the one-hour maximum lateness, disqualifying them as finishers.

Run successfully for twenty years out of Cobocook, "The Cord" was moved to Haliburton to find new challenges for the riders and keep off the beaten track as much as possible.

Two men drown on Kawagama

Two men drowned in Loon Bay on Kawagama Lake at approximately 11:15 p.m. last Sunday night. The victims were Gerald Henry Koehler, age 33 of R.R. # 1, Clifford, Ontario, and Elmer Harold Klein, age 30, of Harriston, Ontario.

The victims as well as two other passengers left the landing at the west end of Loon Bay shortly after 11:00 p.m. to travel to the cottage of Franklin Cecil Cotter, a distance of approximately 300 yards.

About 100 yards from the cottage, the small aluminum boat began to take on water, and capsized.

Mr. Klein attempted to swim to shore, but drowned.

Mr. Koehler, who remained with the boat, became tangled in the anchor ropes and drowned. His body was recovered with the boat, and the body of Mr. Klein was located at approximately 9:30 a.m. on Monday morning by O.P.P. divers R.W. Pearson of Minden and F.C. Wilson of Lindsay.

Dr. H.E. Good of Haliburton was the coroner, and Provincial Constable R.V. Telford of the Minden Detachment was the investigating officer.

Radio host visiting in Haliburton

Dave Price whose radio programme from Florida "Canada Calling" which is all about Canadians who are vacationing or living in the sunny south was in Haliburton last week to renew old acquaintances. He was staying at "Rolling Acres" at Canning Lake.

Dave is well known in the area having been in charge of Camp 1 when they were building Highway 35 in 1933. He was on that job for about two years and during that time he brought many hockey teams from camp 1 to play hockey in the old Haliburton Arena.

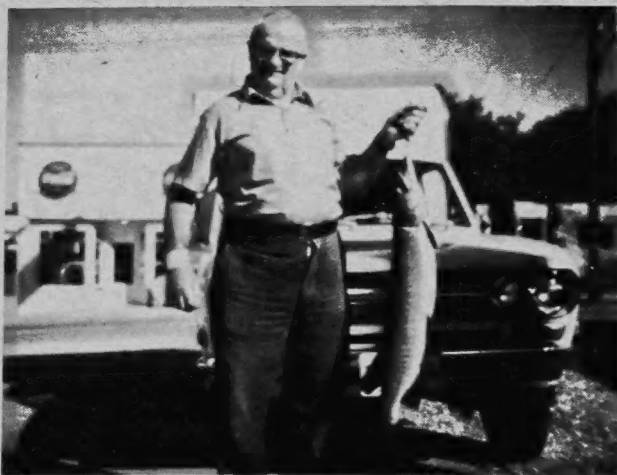

After leaving Haliburton County he went to Toronto as a sportscaster for a Toronto Radio station. He started to broadcast from Florida in 1947 and has been there ever since.

His radio program "Canada Calling" has proven to be very successful and has brought enjoyment to a great many Canadians. We wish him the best of luck.

Correction

In last week's paper, we reported that a vehicle driven by Minnie Alma Hall has been parked on a roadway where there was no clear view.

Although the vehicle is owned by Mrs. Hall, her husband was driving the vehicle at the time of the incident and he, Harry Alexander Hall, was the person charged.

Bill Ward of Haliburton catches the big ones. And this isn't the first time. He is shown here displaying the big Muskie he landed while fishing alone in Head Lake at Haliburton on Tuesday evening. He caught the fish just before dark after fishing for only twenty minutes. It weighed in at 11 1/4 lb and it was 37 inches long and 12 inches around the girth.

The Nethercott vehicle sustained $500.00 damage in the incident investigated by Constable R. W. Pearson.

Legislative highlights By William Scott

While the Ontario Legislature is sitting and carrying on the public's business, the citizens of Ontario receive pretty fair news coverage through radio, television and newspaper reporters stationed with the press gallery at Queen's Park. They provide relatively fair treatment and background information on the various public issues under debate in the House. But in providing general and uniform news reporting for the Province, they are unable to zero in on specific ridings.

In this report on some of the activities of the Ontario Government during the Fourth Session of the Twenty-Ninth Legislature, I thought I would concentrate on providing my constituents with a general rundown on some of the bills passed during the recently completed session. Such a review of legislation I believe helps the public in understanding the legislative priorities which the government has established for the Province.

Government is not unlike any other organization or group in establishing what its goals will be in future years. As in all other organizations, probably the introduction of a budget serves as the central focal point around which all projects and activities are centred for that year. When the Honourable John White, Treasurer of Ontario, introduced the Government's Budget on April 9th, the basic budgetary objective was to deal with inflation was a basic issue. Undoubtedly inflation will continue to be a major concern of most people throughout Canada. While it is impossible for any single Provincial Government to completely resolve the inflation issue, the Ontario Government has taken positive steps to reduce the effects of inflation for people of modest means.

sol'd for $30. or less and household cleaning products. The base property tax credit has doubled from $90. to $180. But the maximum tax credit entitlement has been raised from $400. to $500. and the offset rate will be increased from 1% to 2% of taxable income. Overall, Ontario's fair sharing tax credit system will now provide some $375 million in benefits to Ontario families and individuals compared to $305 million in 1973 in order to reduce the burden of property taxes and the increasing costs of home heating.

The creation of the Guaranteed Annual Income System (GAINS) was one of the major achievements of the Government in social policy. GAINS will apply to Senior Citizens, the blind and the disabled. Effective July 1, a single pensioner in Ontario receives a minimum of $216.67 per month and a married pension couple a minimum of $433.33 per month. These are the highest benefits anywhere in Canada that do not include OHIP Premiums payed on behalf of pensioners. Nor does it include free prescriptions drugs which will be made available to needy pensioners beginning September 1. The GAINS program is the first step toward a wider and comprehensive income security scheme for all Ontarians.

While the inflationary spiral hurts personal incomes, local governments do not have a sufficiently flexible and expanding tax base to meet the rising costs of either existing or new services. That is why the 1974 Budget contains important new measures to help local governments carry ou their particular tasks in these inflationary times. Under the 1974 Property Tax Stabilization Plan, $124 million in new grants have been made available to local governments. As well, $115 million in existing grants brings the total of direct transfers to local governments to $239 million.

What proportion of funds do communities in Victoria-Haliburton receive? While the figures are so far just estimates and do not include other grant assistance to municipalities, the grants under this program will have a tremendous impact on our local communities. Let's take a look at the figures for 1973 and 1974 for some of the townships, towns and villages:

1973 (Total Grants 000)	1974 (Total Grants 000)
Lindsay	522,000	672,000
Cardiff	13,000	26,000
Bobcaygeon	16,000	20,000
Anson, Hindon and Minden	29,000	52,000
Lutterworth	5,000	11,000
Omeme	15,000	25,000
Woodville	7,000	11,000
Sherbourne	9,000	21,000

One local government's level of quality and service does not fall below another municipality's capacity to meet the needs of its people through this financial assistance. This type of grant assistance has helped immensely in reducing property taxes for local taxpayers.

"THINK"

We are quite familiar with the passage "just because he didn't think". and all the troubles that came to his pathway because of too hasty action.

It reminds me of an article I read many years ago on this subject, it ran something like this.

Sow a thought and reap an action,
Sow an act you reap a habit -
Sow a habit you reap a character,
Sow a character and you reap a destiny.

My experience over many years bears out this thought.

The Bible gives many instances in the use of this small word. They think to do me mischief Neh. 16-2. Think on these things Romans 12-2.

Also Robert W Service seems to say it much better than I can.

JUST THINK!

Just think! some night the stars will gleam
Upon a cold, grey stone,
And trace a name with silver beam,
And lo! 'twill be your own.

That night is speeding on to greet
Your epitaphic rhyme.
Your life is but a little beat
Within the heart of time.

A little gain, a little pain,
A laugh, lest you may moan;
A little blame, a little fame,
A star-gleam on a stone.

PEACE BE WITH YOU!

News Letter

School is in and the summer holidays are over. Many of our summer visitors have gone home and we are hoping for a warm September so many of our visitors will return to the Highlands to enjoy our beautiful scenery.

Mr and Mrs Ed Fugar have arrived home following a trip to the West where they visited with Mr and Mrs Cliff Jones and family at Brandon, Manitoba.

It is a good potato crop this year at Tory Hill. Harry Finlay who lives there and has a beautiful garden was showing us a basket of potatoes he had picked from this garden and were they ever large ones. One of them to be exact weighed 2½ lbs. What a crop.

The Haliburton Guild of Fine Arts have announced that Pottery Classes for the fall will begin the week of September 16th at the Lakeview School at Haliburton. Fees are $15.00 plus materials for approximately three month session.

All dog owners are reminded that 1974 Dog Tags are now on sale at the Municipal Office in Haliburton. Every dog, regardless of age or breed, whether owned, harboured or boarded must be tagged.

In discussing the Labor Day weekend weather and just how cold it was a local citizen reminded us that a year ago on the same holiday weekend that the temperatures were around the 95 degree mark.

You have to be able to see to avoid accidents. Check out your windshield wipers and be prepared for those summer rains, the Ontario Safety League warns drivers. Are the wipers doing an efficient job or are you only half seeing? If they're not up to par have them replaced.

We are harping again on the subject of litterbugs in the Highlands and apparently from what we can see we have plenty of them. It just makes us sick to think that people will litter the countryside with debris when it can be put in litter barrels which are there for everyone's convenience. Let us keep Haliburton County beautiful. So don't be a litterbug.

We would once again like to remind our readers and advertisers that if a holiday falls on a Monday it's business as usual at the Haliburton County Echo. The office will be open and our deadline will remain the same, that it Monday at 5 p.m. Keep this in mind.

In closing this column this week may we remind you that the Haliburton County Homecoming weekend is scheduled for September 27-28-29.

Just a reminder that the Haliburton County Centennial Homecoming weekend is set for September 27-28-29, 1974. So plan now to come and see the Highlands in living color.

Speed doesn't kill, says the Ontario Safety League. Impact does. But speeding is a sure way to build up your impact. Double your speed and the impact is four times greater.

One of the Highlights of the Stanhope Color Fly-In on Sunday September, 29 will be the Export "A" Balloon.

In Toronto

Men teachers federation holds its annual meeting

The Ontario Public School Men Teachers' Federation held its annual meeting on August 13-16th at the Skyline Hotel in Toronto.

Some 200 teachers from various parts of the province attended the function. They were selected by the Organization's individual district units. Those in attendance included above, left to right; Mr. Nick Pawluch of the Haliburton Highlands Senior Elementary School and Mr. Bruce Lewis of the Victoria-Haliburton District.

Ontario's men elementary school teachers today turned down a bid to seat a woman delegate at their annual assembly.

Minutes after the opening of the assembly of the Ontario Public School Men Teachers' Federation, Howard Moscoe of North York introduced Betty Skilbeck as a member of his delegation, and a voluntary member of the federation.

The seating of Ms. Skilbeck was challenged by R.E. Poste, a member of the Provincial Executive, who said a voluntary member could not hold office and that being a member of the assembly constituted holding office.

Mr Moscoe replied that last year's assembly had not decided on a definition for "holding office". His district had decided "holding office" didn't mean being a delegate to the assembly.

Chairman R.E. Edwards of North Bay ruled in favour of Mr Poste's objection.

The ruling was challenged by the North York delegation, but the Speaker's ruling was upheld 100-66.

Later, however, the assembly passed a resolution supporting amalgamation with the Federation of Women Teachers' Association of Ontario, which represents 33,000 women elementary teachers. Similar motions have been passed in previous years.

Today's resolution said amalgamation would be in the best interests of students and teachers and that rights of women in the profession must be protected.

"Early Days in Haliburton" by Harley R. Cummings of Haliburton Lake - a story of early surveys, lumbering and settlement of Haliburton. First published in 1962, copywrited by the Department of Lands and Forests.

"Haliburton Hills" by Burleigh Wallace, who used to live near Haliburton village. Poems of the Highlands, the fourth edition published in 1970 by the Rotary Club of Haliburton and the Canadian Red Cross Society, Haliburton New Hospital Building Committee.

Centennial books were published by both Minden and Haliburton villages, and contributions to County History by such writers as R. H. Baker, Professor Watson Kirkconnell, and Florence Murray (Muskoka and Haliburton).

Honourable mention should be made of "Remembering When" which is not yet published but was compiled by five Haliburton County students this past summer working on a Federal Government grant. They used the grant well and are only hoping they may have an opportunity to write a second volume with tales of the very many people throughout the County they did not have time to interview.

Shopping plaza should be built in village

For the past few months we have heard rumors of two proposed shopping centres for Haliburton. From where we sit there seems to be a good possibility that one or both of these shopping plazas could get off the ground. One of the plazas is to be built in the village while the other one would be about a mile out of town.

Public opinion seems to be that we would be far better off with a shopping centre in town where more services are readily available instead of on the outskirts.

In the February report of Caucus Commentary an informal review of current Provincial Affairs they claim that "Rural Shopping Centres need to be controlled".

We quote from that report.

"The Ontario Government may have to tighten its control of commercial developments such as new shopping centres, unless more municipalities adopt their own land-use controls, Treasurer John White warned in a speech to the annual conference of the Ontario Association of Rural Municipalities in Hamilton. Mr. White criticized developers "who thwart the plans and intentions of town councils by building shopping centre just outside town boundaries.

"To that breed of developer it doesn't seem to matter that his new shopping centre will distort the orderly growth and pervert the well-made plans of the town where his potential customers live.

"The Treasurer said the practice may have to be stopped by giving the province more power through an amendment to The Planning Act.

"He said some shopping centre developments are being permitted or even encouraged by "short-sighted people who cannot or will not see that they are creating a pattern of waste and chaos that may plague the whole community for generations to come."

Water skiing safe if rules are obeyed

Water skiing is a spectacular and enjoyable water sport and comparatively safe if basic rules of operation and Canadian laws are observed.

The Ontario Safety League reminds skiers that it is mandatory to have two people in the towboat, one to drive the boat and concentrate on the course ahead and the other to watch the skier and pass on instructions to the operator. It is the responsibility of the boat operator to avoid shallows, shorelines and other water traffic that would endanger the skier or the boat.

Dangerous operation is an offense under Canadian laws and involves obstructing the movement of other boats in confined channels, skiing too close to shore installations and in swimming areas. Skiers have no special privileges and must observe all the rules of the road and rights of way on the water.

It is unlawful to water ski from one hour after sunset to sunrise and during the hour after sunset navigation lights must be showing on the towboat.

Maximum penalty for offenses is $500.00.

Be a booster not a knocker

In every centre in Haliburton County there are a group of citizens who reside in a community and one would hardly know that they live here if we didn't happen to notice their names in the voters list. They could even move away and no one would miss them.

The people we are talking about are the few who sit back and take no part in community affairs. They don't belong to any organization, they give to nothing, they attend very few events in the community and in other words they are a lost cause.

These same people who put nothing back into the community are usually the first to kick about anything that may be done.

The so called citizens we are talking about are the first to complain about the council or any organization which is out for the betterment of their community in which they live. These people are against progress in any form and they will knock it at every opportunity. They must be ignored if we are to get ahead.

This is 1974 and we must look forward not back, we can't stand still. So come on and be a booster not a knocker. Let us get on with the job.

BILL SMILEY

OUR SOCIAL LIFE GETS WARMED UP

Perhaps I sounded a bit grumpy last week because this has been one of those summers when a chap feels that he hasn't done anything, seen anything, or been anywhere. And it has.

But that is not to say that it has been without interest and incident. Last week, I whined about our scanty social life: one funeral, one wedding.

However, we've had some very interesting visitors. Almost every day. Roofers, painters, a columnist, a student, a syndicate man, a physiotherapist, and — the most interesting of all — my grandbabby.

And I reckon I've learned a wee bit about human nature in the process. Perhaps that's what it's all about. I like physical nature as well as the next man, but I am fascinated by human nature.

Physical nature is interesting and fairly predictable. You plant a seed properly, nurture it, give it plenty of fertilizer, the right amount of sun and water, pluck out the weeds around it, and you wind up with a dandy cucumber or turnip, or whatever you planted.

But you can't do that with humans, though you try. Maybe we give them too much fertilizer, or don't pluck the weeds. We plant what we think is going to be a rose, and it turns out to be a cabbage. Or vice versa. Any parent knows this.

By the way, don't get excited, or nervous. This is not a tract on Freudian sexual symbolism. It is merely a middle-aged man trying to express his astonishment at the variegation of the human species.

Once again, I drift into one of those remote channels that end up in a swamp. Why not stock to the main stream? Back to our summer visitors. There are two categories: those who caught us at home, and those who did not.

Those in the latter category came around when we were out doing something exotic, like shopping. Or at night, when we were cringing in the TV room, lights out, doors locked, phone off the hook, arguing about whether we'd watch the John Wayne 1940 western or the Audrey Hepburn 1953 dazzler.

Among these were two people who left notes. One was Doris Humphries, a lively columnist in the Renfrew Mercury. "Darn you, Bill Smiley. I came all the way from Renfrew...". Sorry, Doris. I'll buy you a dinner next time. I read your column every week in one of Canada's best weeklies. And remind your boss that he still owes me a dinner. (He was a terrified infantryman when I was a terrified Typhoon pilot.)

Another note was from a student. Sharp mind, headed for university and law. Beware, you lawyers of five years from now. Don't fool with this young lady? , punk? , woman? , person? . She'll murder you. Typically, with the deep respect my students have for me, her note began, "Hi, Smiley, I came around and you didn't even have the decency to be at home...".

A few of the visitors caught us at home. One was Bill Craig, of Argyle Syndicate, who has more to do with getting out this column than anyone except me. Our previous acquaintance had been on the phone. I expected a smart-alec young punk of about twenty-six with the big sideburns, the big pants, and the hearty manner.

I was shattered. He and his wife Betty arrived for that notorious pre-dinner appetizer. They have an eighteen-year-old daughter and a sweet, shy little son, James, who is five. Bill is a Korean war veteran. He demolished me at two games of chess, and played a fair piano. So much for preconceptions.

Some of the others who caught us in were the painters and the roofers. When we were up at the crack of dawn, ready for any questions, they didn't show up. When we were up at the crack of noon, not expecting them, they were buzzing the doorbell at 8:30, like hornets, I report, not happily, but just as an observer, that they were all stung severely by a number of hornets in our roof and environs.

Then there was the Scotsman. He is a physiotherapist. Boy, that's a hard word to spell. He wanted work, after hours, so he could buy a house. I was rather intrigued by the idea that a young man actually wanted to work. And then there was my bad back, which comes in handy very often. He's an excellent gardener, and our place looks better than it has in a decade.

But there, I've run out of space, and I haven't even told you of the party in our backyard for retarded adults, or the hellery of my grandbabby. He has just arrived again, and I can hear him shouting downstairs for Bill, or somebody who understands that when he's asleep, he is pure angel, and when he's awake, he's pure devil.

Home Care Hints

YOUR FLOOR

Floors in most modern homes are designed for a minimum of care and maintenance. To obtain best results, follow the manufacturer's suggestions.

VINYL TILE: Ordinary washing and occasional use of a self-polishing wax will keep the floor in shape.

CERAMIC TILE: Soap and water will keep such floors looking like new. Do not use abrasive cleaners as they can scratch the surface. Use a brush to clean joints.

HARDWOOD FLOORS: Use of water here is a no-no. To clean use fine steel wool and mineral spirits. This will remove old wax. Then apply two or three thin coats of wax. Let each dry thoroughly and polish it before applying next coat. Done about twice a year, this will give a good, wear-resistant finish.

CARPETING: As there is a great variety in quality and materials be sure to follow manufacturer's recommendations for care of a particular carpet.

Minister urges driving caution

Last year in Ontario 194 children were killed and 12,000 injured in traffic accidents ... 95 of the children were pedestrians, 36 were riding bicycles and others were in motor vehicles.

In announcing these figures, Minister of Transportation and Communications John R. Rhodes reminded all motorists that the opening of a new school year presents particular hazards.

"The first days back at school are an exciting time for youngsters," Mr. Rhodes warned. "They often become forgetful about the traffic safety rules. Thus, all motorists must be constantly alert when driving in school areas. They must take extra caution where there are parked cars, school crossing zones or playground areas.

"In rural districts, adult drivers must be very cautious when they see a yellow school bus. If the bus is stopped with red signal lights flashing it means children are getting on or off the bus. The onus is on all drivers to see that children cross the road safely."

College appointment extends women's courses and services

Sir Sandford Fleming College has announced the appointment of Bonnie Kennedy, of Lindsay, as the first full-time co-ordinator of College programs tailored for women.

Working through the College's continuing education division, Mrs. Kennedy said she will be researching ways existing College programs can be made more readily available to various groups of women, and also looking at new courses that would be of interest and assistance to them.

At the same time, she will be a resource person for women inquiring about part-time College courses, and those volunteering information or talents relevant to women's programs.

Mrs. Kennedy will be involved in these activities in Cobourg and Lindsay, as well as Peterborough. Currently, she is co-ordinating two special programs in the latter centre, which begin in October.

As with many women's programs, they will be presented in the afternoons, a time slot that has proven convenient for a large number of women. In addition, transportation has been eased by offering courses at the in-town campus on McDonnell Street.

The first program is a 10-session series Thursday afternoons looking at Women's role in contemporary society. Mrs. Kennedy said there will be no examinations or essays involved, since the course is designed to provide an informal setting for those who would like to pursue an interest outside the home, but are uncertain about the direction they should take.

The lectures will be informative and thought provoking, Mrs. Kennedy said, in order to provide students with a basis for discussion and future planning. Topics will include women in the home, male and female roles, women and education, women and work, and social pressures and attitudes.

A more specific course will be presented Tuesday afternoons concerning career preparation, which Mrs. Kennedy said is designed for the woman who has already decided to investigate career possibilities. The course will provide information that will both help women enter the job market, and ease the adjustment required at home by such a move.

As a result, topics cover career preparation, creative job research techniques, resumes, interview conduct, and wardrobe and grooming hints, along with other concerns such as organizing housework to accommodate the job schedule, and fast meal preparation.

Other general interest courses slated for the afternoons include paper pattern alteration, indoor gardening, and conversational Spanish. Credit courses are psychology, sociology, communications, interior design, basic drawing and painting and ceramics one and two.

Mrs. Kennedy holds a diploma in social services from Sir Sandford Fleming College and attended McMaster and York universities to receive an honours degree in political science.

Until 1973 she was employed by the Ontario Department of Trade and Development, and during the past year was a part-time instructor with Sir Sandford.

Forest fire statistics

By Ross Beagan
Information Officer

As of July 29, almost 1,375 square miles of Ontario forests had been burned in the worst forest fire season since 1961.

In comparative terms, this represents a strip of land ten miles in width extending from Toronto to Huntsville, or two-thirds of the area of the entire Province of Prince Edward Island!

The Algonquin Region of the Ministry of Natural Resources, which includes the Districts of Parry Sound, Bracebridge, Minden, Bancroft, Algonquin Park and Pembroke has contributed heavily in manpower and resources to the current outbreak of fires in Northern Ontario. At last report, a total of 78 men including fire line supervisors, crewmen, and pilots had been airlifted to battle the dozens of fires, some as large as 130,000 acres.

Weaving group meets

The weaving group of Haliburton met last Wednesday August 28 at Thilde Nevitt's cottage of Big Bob lake south of Minden.

They decided to weave the rugs for the bedrooms of the five cottages on Head Lake built by the school of Fine Arts.

With co-operation of the stichery and rug hooking groups they hope to weave 13 stocking rugs, three being done by Mrs. Nevitt personally.

So please save your stockings girls and drop them off at either Lakeview Centre or Black's Hardware. We would appreciate your donations.

What's new with Provincial Parks?

SWORD Program

For the past ten week period (June 24th-September 3rd), 26 S.W.O.R.D. students have been busily engaged performing work at Emily, Darlington, Balsam Lake and Serpent Mounds Parks in this District. Of this amount, 22 students performed various maintenance tasks such as garbage collection, grass cutting and trimming, litter pick up, etc. while the remaining four were engaged on a special chemical spraying project for the control of a serious sawfly infestation of young spruce and pine trees at Balsam Lake Park.

The S.W.O.R.D. Program (STUDENTS WORKING ON RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT) is but one of twenty programmes

sponsored this past summer by the Provincial Government's Youth Secretariat "ONTARIO EXPERIENCE '74". The aim of these programs was to provide young people with valuable work experience while at the same time performing jobs that needed to be done in our communities and on public lands throughout the Province. The other obvious benefit to the student of course, is the fact that money is earned to assist him or her with schooling costs.

Judging from the quality and quantity of work performed and the enthusiasm displayed by our students in the Parks this past summer, the S.W.O.R.D. program has been a resounding success.

PARK SECURITY

In a continuing effort to make our Parks safer and more enjoyable for the public to visit, several measures such as increased number and training of security staff, and a more strict application of the law have been instigated.

The results have been convincing! Anyone wishing to visit a park and disobey regulations under the Parks Act or other Provincial and Federal Statutes, can rest assured that he may pay dearly for his actions.

Section 12 of the Provincial Parks Act grants Park Superintendents and Conservation Officers all the power and authority of an Ontario Provincial Officer within the boundaries of a Provincial Park.

The following is a list of some charges which have been laid in the District Parks this season and the resultant fines.

2, "Untidy Campsite" (Parks Act) $25.00 each count.

1, "Operating a Vessel (Boat) While Intoxicated" (Criminal Code), $200.00 (Operator also prohibited from operating any boat in Canadian waters for six months.

1, "Operating a Motorcycle Off Roadway" (Parks Act), $25.00.

15 "Having Liquor Other Than Residence" (Liquor Control Act), $32.00 each count.

In addition to the above, approximately 310 people involving 40 campsites have been evicted from our parks to date for unnecessary noise and the use of profanity.

UPGRADING OF FACILITIES

In our quest to provide sufficient up-to-date facilities in our Parks, the following upgrading projects are planned for implementation this fall.

BALSAM LAKE - A rehabilitation of existing campsites will be undertaken. This will involve construction of gravel parking ramps, curbs, levelling of sites, placement of topsoil and seeding. Four new vault privies to be installed in the Maple View campground, replacing the existing EPT's. Portion of old Highway #46 behind beach area to be relocated behind beach parking lots. Improvements to be made to existing comfort stations septic system in campground area.

EMILY PARK - New docking and boat launching facilities to be constructed along shoreline adjacent to campgrounds.

DARLINGTON PARK - It is anticipated that plans will soon be available to enable commencement of first stage of shoreline erosion control.

In addition to the above projects, all parks will be busily engaged in fall maintenance work, ie. painting, repairs, etc. as well as obtaining and manufacturing next season's supply of fuelwood - approximately 750 - 4 foot cords.

CONSERVATION TOTEM POLE MOVES!!

Persons who have visited our office will probably recall a Totem Pole, approximately two feet high carved out of wood and on display in the office foyer. You will be interested to know that this fine piece of work has a new home.

This carving, known as The "Conservation Totem" was presented to the "People of Ontario" by the Ontario Forestry Association during Forest Conservation Week in 1960. The late Leslie M. Frost, then Prime Minister of Ontario, received the Totem Pole on behalf of the province. Since that time, the totem pole has rested in the Ontario Government Building in Lindsay.

With the recent establishment of the Leslie M. Frost Natural Resources Centre near Dorset, it is only natural that many of Mr. Frost's artifacts will be located at the Centre. As such, we felt the Conservation Totem would be a most worthwhile item to be included in the collection.

As a retailer, you could be experiencing the best part of your business year in the next few months.

Your customers will be looking for new clothing styles and fashions for the coming fall and winter. Hearty appetites mean greater grocery sales. As we said, this could be your busiest season if people are aware of the products you have available and the savings and service you can offer as a local retailer. Being in business doesn't necessarily mean that you are going to do business. More than ever, the consumer wants to know what you have to offer.

That's where we come in. Every week our newspaper is welcomed into just about every home in your trading area. Every week your prospective customers are reading our paper for its news and advertising messages. Are they reading your message or will they end up buying somewhere else?

Boy Scouts teach camping skills

by Brian Keith
Public Relations Assistant

A lot of people went camping on their holidays this summer. It was a great way to get away from the hectic pace of the city, and get back to the good things of nature.

The Boy Scouts of Canada has always been keen on camping. Scouts experience camping skills at an early age, and providing opportunities for using natural resources to the fullest is one of Scouting's fundamentals.

With a great number of people taking up camping these days, there is a need for the Boy Scouts to share their knowledge. A pilot project, "Scouting in the Parks", was conducted during the summer by the Boy Scouts, under a grant from the "Youth in Action" program of the Ontario Government. Visitors to Earl Rowe Provincial Park near Alliston, Ont. were able, for the first time, to utilize the camping know-how of two Rover Scouts. Donald MacDonald, 18, and Daniel Bryant, 19 - both students - provided service and assistance to park visitors from their "Camper Service Centre".

The two Rovers spent all summer helping people to set up tents, build campfires, and operate portable camp stoves. Hundreds of people, trying camping for the first time, were assisted, and the Rovers helped to make their camping experiences more enjoyable.

Each day, Daniel and Donald offered one or two lectures, hikes, nature lore demonstrations, or they shared, with park visitors, some of the skills they had picked up as Boy Scout members. The most popular demonstrations, they said, were those concerning the proper use of an axe, knife and saw; handicrafts, and orineteering (use of map and compass). Once, no fewer than thirty-eight people learned macrame during a single session. It was not surprising that over two miles of hemp twine was used up over the summer.

According to Donald MacDonald, practically everyone at the park used a portable stove, but some people weren't sure how to operate them safely. A representative of the Canadian Coleman Co. had given the young men a crash course on his products, and the knowledge proved valuable. It is likely that a few burned fingers and a few singed eyebrows were saved during the summer as a result of the Rovers' guidance.

One of the more challenging jobs was assisting people who attempted to erect their own tents, but made a mess of it. "They would jam two aluminum poles together, which weren't designed to fit in the first place," Daniel said. "Then they would request our help in pulling them apart." Instructions for pitching canvas tents are not usually very clear, he commented.

The Rovers told of one lady, camping alone with her children, who somehow set her tent on fire. She realized that her husband would be furious, so she called on the Rover Scouts to restore the ill-fated tent to its original quality. (At last report, Donald and Daniel were considering entering the tent repair business.)

There were from 10 - 12,000 visitors at Earl Howe each weekend. Extra help came in the form of three volunteer Boy Scouts or Venturers who came to work from Friday to Sunday. The additional service they provided was appreciated.

Working on "Scouting in the Parks" meant not only sorting out campers' problems, but dealing with various organizations and government agencies. Donald complained of being swamped with paperwork - reports in triplicate, official forms, and so on. He was heard muttering, "There are more people writing reports on this thing..." (That includes, I assume, people writing stories for newspapers...)

Daniel said his job was frustrating sometimes. Occasionally, they would be awakened at 2 a.m., with orders to eject the town drunk from the park. Daniel was responsible for handicraft sessions, besides assisting Donald in many of the demonstrations.

Donald MacDonald is, like Daniel, from Strathroy, Ont. "I'm a camping nut," he said. "We learned from a book how to make a refrigerator using two large pails - one filled with water, which evaporates and provides the cooling effect." He enters Forestry at Lakehead University in September.

What is the future of "Scouting in the Parks"? The success of the pilot project has yet to be determined; all of the agencies involved are in the process of analyzing their innumerable reports. An early evaluation, though, shows that it was an unqualified success. Those closely involved with "Scouting in the Parks" want to see it expanded in future years to include more Provincial Parks - and in other provinces, too.

It looks as if a Boy Scout "Camper Service Centre" will become a familiar sight to campers, as more and more people take up the activity every year.

Planes used to water-bomb fire

By Ross Beagan
Information Officer

The Parry Sound Forest District of the Ministry of Natural Resources scored a "first" last week when they called upon the Ministry's new Grumman Trackers to venture south of the French River for the first time.

Fresh from bouts with raging blazes in Northwest Ontario, these newest additions to the ministry air fleet were called upon to suppress a half dozen lightning-caused fires between Pointe au Baril and the French River. The Tracker bombers carry 800 gallons of fire retardant chemicals.

Most of the fires occurred in highly inaccessible areas. Ground crews may have taken as much as two to three hours to reach some of them. Forest conditions were such that the potential existed for another massive outbreak of forest fires. This could not be tolerated, especially in areas having heavy concentrations of cottages, provincial parks, and summer vacationers.

Therefore, the fire control staff in Parry Sound acted swiftly, calling the Ministry

Air Attack Base in Sudbury. Within five minutes a Tracker retardant bomber, together with a speedier "bird-dog" aircraft were in flight. The "bird-dog" aircraft arrived upon the scene sufficiently in advance to survey the fires, consult the district fire control supervisor, and to map a plan of attack. All of the fires were brought under control within a very short time.

Following a five week stint battling massive fires in the Northwest, the Parry Sound fire crews were in no mood to court disaster.

Ministry study shows improved salaries for college graduates

The median salary for graduates of colleges of applied arts and technology has risen from $5,301 in 1971 to $7,238 with the top ten per cent receiving salaries above $10,537 according to the Ministry of Colleges and Universities.

These figures come from a five-year longitudinal study instituted by the Ministry in 1971 on a random sample of that year's graduates.

The study shows that the employment rate among graduates has also increased from 78.1 per cent to 91.4 per cent for the two-year period the study has been in progress.

The Ministry received about 984 responses to the 1971 questionnaire of which 63.8 per cent were males and 36.2 per cent were females. Because comparisons between the years can only be made for persons who answered two questionnaires, many of the cross-year comparisons are based on about 800 responses.

The report shows that the salary ranges for males are higher than for females, with a 1973 median of $8,016, more than $2,000 above the median salary of $5,742 for females. However, the report indicates that the difference in salaries is related to courses of study rather than sexual discrimination.

Programs leading to the highest paid jobs were accounting, engineering technology, general technology and marketing, which are generally attended by men, and the lowest salaries were paid to graduates from the secretarial, food and hospitality and general arts and sciences, programs more frequently attended by women.

The percentage of respondents reporting uninterrupted employment since graduation is almost identical for 1972 and 1973, approximately 70 per cent.

There was a high degree of mobility reported among graduates, with slightly more than forty per cent of the respondents to the 1972 and 1973 surveys reporting job changes. Improved salary was the reason most often reported by employed graduates for changing jobs during the year and the second most frequent reason for changing jobs was work more related to personal interests.

More than half of the respondents reported that their primary source of support while at college had been either their own savings or a part-time job. A total of 37.6 per cent of the respondents reported that they had received an Ontario student award at least one year during their time at college.

Fifty-five per cent of the students reported that they lived with their parents for at least two years during their time at college, and two-fifths of these reported living with their parents for three years if they attended a three-year program.

Junior Ranger camp

By R. W. Tippet

The Ministry of Natural Resources operates sixty-five Junior Ranger Camps throughout Ontario. The program provides 1600 employment opportunities to male and female students resident in Ontario. Candidates for the eight weeks program must be in good physical and mental health. They must also be 17 years of age before during the program, but must not turn 18 before program closing date. The program runs from July 3 to August 27 each season.

The objective of the Junior Ranger program is to provide an opportunity to the youth of Ontario to learn management of natural resources first-hand through a combined working and educational experience.

Seven of the sixty-five Junior Ranger camps are devoted exclusively to girls.

S.W.O.R.D.

Student employment

By Ross Beagan
Information Officer

Karen Sohler, a second-year student at Queen's University, Kingston, is one of 1500 Ontario students who have taken up the S.W.O.R.D. this summer. S.W.O.R.D., of course, stands for "Students Working on Resource Development", a project administered by the Ontario Ministry of Natural Resources.

Part of a nine million dollar student summer employment program funded by the Provincial Youth Secretariat, 130 of these students are employed in the forest districts of Bancroft, Minden, Pembroke, Algonquin Park, Bracebridge and Parry Sound.

Karen's job is rather unique - a survey of every gravel pit in the 19 townships of the ministry's Bancroft District. Southern Ontario faces a severe shortage of gravel, with unofficial estimates placing our present reserves at a mere 5 to 10 year supply. Gravel is a major ingredient in the preparation of concrete, the lifeblood of the construction industry. On it rests the fate of housing, highways, plus a host of other essential items of everyday life.

Working from aerial photographs, Karen Sohler plots the locations of each and every gravel pit on topographical maps. Each individual pit is then visited where compass readings are taken to determine and plot their exact locations on more detailed "township-sized" maps. A two-page report is then compiled listing such things as who owns or uses the pit, what the gravel is used for, how far the gravel is transported, and the estimated tonnage remaining.

One of them is the South River Camp, thirty-five miles south of North Bay. Some of the activities here are:

Plantation management: the improvement of a plantation to produce veneer material by removing the lower branches of the tree so that only knot-free wood is produced.

Forest Access Road Maintenance: the improvement of forest access roads to provide safe access into forests for the public. This has involved building bridges and clearing brush along road sides.

Forest Inventory: assisting regular ministry staff in obtaining timber volume estimates in forested areas.

Parks Maintenance: cleaning, painting and general maintenance of Provincial Parks.

Maintenance of Public

Access Points: Canoe Routes and Snowmobile Trails, to facilitate the public use of crown lands.

Geology: studies of geological formations and minerals through lectures, followed by conducted field trips.

Camp Maintenance and General Operations: day to day camp maintenance and assistance to the cookery staff.

Fish and Wildlife Management: the banding of ducks and the study of operations at a provincial fish hatchery.

All facets of Ministry operations are presented in lecture form during the summer by all Branches of the Ministry, with special emphasis on safe work habits.

This is the second year of operation for the South River Junior Ranger Camp for girls, and it appears that the girls have taken to this type of program like ducks to water.

Tourism means jobs.

This is what Ontario is doing to keep the tourists coming.

Tourism is good for Ontario. Tourists take nothing away except happy memories, but they leave plenty of money behind them.

That's why your Ontario government seeks to attract visitors to our province, and asks for your help in making them feel welcome.

Already, tourism is Ontario's 3rd largest industry. It provides jobs for over 154,000 people, quite possibly including you and your neighbours. What's more, by 1978 Ontario expects to play host to enough visitors to create 85,000 additional jobs.

A worthwhile goal, certainly. But how can all this be accomplished? Here are some of the things that your Ontario government is doing:

We're making loans for the development of tourist facilities—through the Ontario Business Incentives Program, Ontario Development Corporation, Eastern Ontario Development Corporation, and Northern Ontario Development Corporation.

Ontario now has Tourism specialists in London (Eng.), Los Angeles, Frankfurt, and Tokyo.

We are working with airlines, railroads and bus companies to promote the pleasures of Ontario.

We are striving to bring conventions to smaller as well as larger communities, and to resort areas, especially during off seasons.

We are supporting your local Travel Associations, with ample money to promote local tourism.

We are promoting the attractions of our Province by advertising throughout Ontario and nearby U.S. states.

You can help us welcome visitors by greeting them in a friendly manner, and showing them genuine hospitality.

Encourage visitors to come back, and to bring their friends.

If we all do our share, we can increase the number of tourists who come here, and that's not only good for the tourists—it's good for Canada, good for Ontario, and good for you.

Land speculation tax act, 1974

Arthur Meen, Minister of Revenue, announced last week that his ministry will be introducing new administrative procedures under the land speculation tax act, 1974.

These steps will be of particular interest to lawyers, realtors and related groups across the province. "We have been reviewing the procedures by which lien clearance certificates are issued and believe that significant benefits will arise if we decentralize our operations," he explained.

This new decentralized lien clearance service will be introduced on Monday, September 16, 1974, in all assessment offices in Ontario and in the following 15 land registration offices: Barrie, Brampton, Hamilton, London, Milton, Newmarket, Ottawa, Sarnia, Sudbury, St. Catharines, Toronto, Thunder Bay, Welland, Whitby, Windsor.

"Over the next two months I hope to be able to make arrangements to extend this service into all land registration offices in Ontario," Mr Meen commented.

This decentralization will allow lien clearances required under the act to be issued upon presentation of completed application forms and the necessary supporting documents. In instances where time or circumstances do not permit the filing of completed documents, the lien clearance certificate will be issued upon receipt of an undertaking to file a completed application within 60 days. However, this procedure will not apply to taxable sales by non-residents.

In certain complex cases, it may still be necessary to refer applications for lien clearances to the ministry in Toronto. These applications may be forwarded directly to Toronto or through Ministry staff in the assessment or land registration offices.

In these latter instances, where the information is complete and the disposition of the designated land is exempt or where tax has been paid or secured, a lien clearance certificate will be issued from Toronto and mailed back to the applicant within three working days after receipt of the application.

"I'm sure this new setup of our administration will be welcomed since it provides local assistance in obtaining lien clearance certificates and will, I trust, remove much of the inconvenience experienced by people outside Toronto," the minister concluded.

Gems of Truth

JUST EXACTLY SUITS US SINNERS

Wherefore He is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by Him seeing He ever liveth to make intercession for them. Hebrews 7:25.

Two absolute requisites for a sinner's safety are inseparably bound in this verse. The first is the extent of the salvation, the second is the effectiveness of the Saviour. It is quite easy for the natural mind to concede that God might be charitable and generous toward little sins (?) which do no great harm (like yours for instance!) but how can big sins (?) (like mine, let us say) be forgiven? Even though we allow that God is love there is the fact of Divine justice to be reckoned with. If God is unheeding and all-tolerant about sin we might as well release all moral restraint and do as the flesh pleases. Many are living like that to-day.

But the person who is taught of the Spirit realizes that there are no "little" and "big" sins in God's sight. Sin is sin. The careless and casual blasphemer who hourly takes the Name of God and of Christ on unholy lips, using the sacred Name as an oath and a byword, will be astonished to hear that "God" will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain. Deuteronomy 5:11. How about the pilfering of petty amounts, which in God's sight is as much sin as stealing large amounts. Some try to make circumstances a blanket to cover up and make adultery appear decent and innocent in the eyes of God. God condemns all sin in one blanket statement, "The wages of sin is death"

Romans 6:23 so inevitable doom is pronounced upon all sinners.

Such being the true facts, God graciously offers a pardon for all sin, and remits all penalty under one and same condition. Turn to Jesus Christ and he will deal effectively with every sinner's sin and its consequences. Great or small, sin slays the soul, the spirit and the body. No drunkard ever started his drinking career with the intentions of ending in the gutter but there he lands nevertheless. He did not choose that condition but there he is, a helpless victim of circumstances.

The method Jesus uses to rescue such a one is simple. He climbs down into the gutter with the fallen one, cleans him up, seats him in the Heavenly with Himself and calls that one "saved". To keep him so is the business of the One who saved him and He is well able. Jesus is able to save from anything and to keep forever all who draw near to God through Him.

There are no dead saints who can aid us intimates of weakness and temptation but we have a living Lord who has pledged Himself to keep, empower, cleanse and preserve. This is one of the broadest and most enduring of all God's promises to men who need help. There is no lack in His Eternal storehouse. He has saved millions before to-day and He is well able to fulfill His promises to-day.

Weiner Roast at Harrison farm

The one-hundred year old Harrison farm was the scene of a corn and weiner roast, followed by a square dance in the barn last Saturday August 24.

Approximately one hundred members of the Sugar Bush Cottagers' Association were hosted by Isobel and Bert Harrison, at the first of what is hoped will be an annual event.

Young and old, as well as the middle age group, enjoyed an old fashioned feast of corn and weiners. Later the old barn resounded as it had not done for many years to "Allemande Left" and "Dos-a-Dos". Teenagers found themselves in among "squares" and enjoying it. Old-timers found some sap still flowing, and the in-betweens just plain had a ball.

Hall's Lake News

Congratulations to Mr. George Hunt of the Hawk Lake Road for being the lucky winner of the Draw for the new boat and motor which the Stanhope Firemen held on Saturday evening. Mr and Mrs George Hunt have built a new home and retired to this area fairly recently and we know he will enjoy his new boat as he likes fishing and the outdoor life.

Mrs Rose Pritchard of Toronto is visiting with Mr and Mrs Tom Weir on Boskung Lake at their cottage.

Mr and Mrs Walter Stewart and Miss Ella Forsyth spent the long weekend with Mrs Elsie Bursey and helped to celebrate her birthday.

Mr James McCarthy is on the sick list and spending a quiet time at his cottage. We sincerely hope he will make a quick and complete recovery.

Mr Kenneth Hone Jr. and Miss Barbara Davies were married in St. Paul's Church, Minden, on Saturday and held their Reception at the Canadian Legion in Haliburton. Both Ken and Barbara attended school at Boskung. Michael Johnson of Ottawa was the Best Man and the Bride's sisters were her attendants.

A farewell presentation was made to Mrs. Della Johnson on Monday evening at Club 35 following the weekly Euchre Party. Della is leaving for a trip to the West to visit family and friends and will then return to Toronto. We all wish her a pleasant and safe trip and trust she will return frequently to Hall's Lake which has been her home since 1968.

Miss Eleanore Gilchrist has entertained Nadia Melnyk of Windsor at her cottage for two weeks, and Mrs Val Harris, sister of Mrs A. R. Gilchrist of Twelve-Mile Lake, from San Diego, California.

Miss Bonnie Stinson and Mr. George Holliday of Mount Forest spent the weekend with her parents. Mr and Mrs Robert Conway of Orchard Park had their daughter Betsy with her little daughter from South Carolina visiting at their cottage.

Even the dull cool weather did not keep the people from coming North this weekend, although many left earlier than the usual late afternoon of Monday, the holiday.

All our local children and young adults will be off to school again tomorrow. We trust the rash of accidents which every issue of the local papers has printed will be fewer as the school buses start to roll.

WIN A CARPENTER FOR A DAY

Have you ever wished you had a carpenter around your home? Just for a day? Those shelves you put up last weekend — somehow they don't look the way you expected them to. And that garage you decided to build. It seemed like a good idea at the time but you're running into a few problems.

Let's face it. There are times when a neighbour's well-meaning advice just won't do.

So, we at Buildall decided to have a contest. We're offering 5 days of helping hands for your home! If you are one of 5 winners, here's what will happen!

We'll send a qualified Buildall carpenter out to your home, or wherever you happen to need assistance. For one day (up to 7 hours) you will receive expert help and advice on whatever project you're working on — building that garage, renovating your cottage, installing a ceiling or just hanging a picture (there are right and wrong ways to do it!)

Or maybe you know someone who would welcome some professional assistance. If so, why not enter his or her name? There are 5 chances to win!

Just drop in to your nearest participating Buildall store and fill out a coupon. There's no purchase necessary.

If you win, simply choose a day when you would most appreciate a helping hand. We will arrange to have a qualified carpenter come to your home.

The 5 lucky draws will be made at the end of the contest period.
